2026 Nonprofit Leadership conference

May 21, 2026 | Minneapolis

MINNESOTA COUNCIL OF NONPROFITS

The Minnesota Council of Nonprofits is excited to bring the state's largest gathering of nonprofit leadership back in person! Taking place on May 21 in Minneapolis, this one-of-a-kind conference will host hundreds of nonprofit professionals in one place for learning, resource sharing, relationship building, and celebration.

Attendees of the 2026 Nonprofit Leadership Conference represent all different types and sizes of nonprofits, as well as a wide range of leadership experience. One thing they have in common is the desire to become the leaders their nonprofits need to build stronger teams and better advance their missions. Product and service vendors like you will be able to reach participants before, during, and after the conference through recognition in key promotional materials, on the conference website, in the onsite program and during keynote sessions. As a sponsor, you will have a chance to meet with hundreds of nonprofit professionals looking for solutions to their leadership challenges.
